The Swamy of the Mulbagal Matt in the Tirthahalli Taluk asks for a Rowdan as he proposes to go out on tour.

The previous Swamis seem to have obtained a Rowdari in 1874 from the District Magistrate.

Memorandum does not appear to be available now. (Vide enclosure to petition presented today).

In the year 1888 a list of insignia seems to have been called for from the Districts. The District officers forwarded lists prepared by the Matt Swamis.

We partly have proceeded an extract from such list and it agrees with the compilation kept in the Secretariat.

Reference is made herein to the following insignia. - Swetha Chatra, Makara Thorana, Mahaya Chamara, Hegal Deeti, Danka, Nisani, Palankeen, from which bills

From the Vernacular Records, it is submitted by the agent that a Rahadari No 1127 Dated 10-3-1874 was granted from the district office at Shimogga; but no record to that effect is available in the taluk

The Govt in their order No 38 F 158-07-4 Dated 1.8.08 have allowed the mate to keep 4 Swords, 4 Pistols, 8 Spears etc to guard the Treasure for Prakelan on times of danger

Subd. from Revenue Secretariat. It is not clear if now the Swami has horses, elephants &c & the Swami intends to travel in more Districts than one, a Rahadari from Govt appears to be necessary
